

THE BATTLE OF THE WEDDING BANDS

Picture THE VOICE, but with full BANDS instead of solo singers, facing-off in a bracket-style competition filled with laughs, love, music, and pop stars.

In each episode, our celebrity host introduces us to an engaged couple seeking the perfect wedding band. We learn the couple's love story, their vision for the big day, and their musical tastes.

We then meet three wedding bands, a wide variety of quirky characters with big personalities and compelling backstories who will compete to play our couple's wedding. We'll learn about their lives, their love of music, and how they fell into this very niche career path. Usually, that story involves a failed dream of stardom, but this competition is their shot at redemption, because...

Each season of the show features three regular celebrity advisors (similar to the Voice), popular musicians who are going to push these bands to bring out their personality, hit the high notes, and craft a killer performance to get the gig.

Now, our couples have widely varying taste in music between each other. So it's going to be up to the bands to find a way to please them both, either by creating a medley, a mash-up, or a new twist on an old classic (like a romantic acoustic version of "Baby Got Back"). The bands will then use their musical creation as an "audition" for the couple. To add extra intrigue, we bring in a ticking clock... the bands only have one day to rehearse.

The heart of the show is hanging with our bands as they put their creative sensibilities to work, and watching how their "audition" takes shape via the skilled touches of their advisors. We'll capture the highs and lows of the creative process, the camaraderie and struggles that arise, keeping the tone light and fun while teasing their forthcoming audition.

For the finale, we bring back our host and couple for each band's audition, as they perform their hearts out for the couple in the hopes of being chosen. We watch in suspense as the couple debates which band they like best, and rejoice with them as they pick the winner.

Over the course of the season, the bands will face bracket-style elimination until there's just four bands left standing. Then, in a special season finale, our advisors will become judges, giving each band a specific musical medley challenge and scoring their performances. The winner gets a cash prize and a recording contract.

In the end, the show is not only about finding the perfect wedding band, but also about celebrating the power of music to bring people together and create unforgettable memories. So whether you're a music lover or a hopeless romantic, this show is sure to leave you with a smile on your face and a song in your heart.
